

PREVENTION AND HEALTH COORDINATOR

Specialist in Black, Gay, Bisexual, and Trans Men Who Have Sex with Men

Tacoma Office

Mission Statement: Pierce County AIDS Foundation, through education and service, prevents HIV infection, assists persons affected by HIV/AIDS, addresses related health problems, and combats associated stigma and discrimination.

Summary: The Prevention and Health Coordinator, Specialist in Black, gay, bisexual, and trans men who have sex with men, provides support to individuals navigating access and adherence to antiretrovirals (ARVs) for Pre Exposure Prophylaxis (PrEP). The Coordinator also provides other prevention services such as educational activities, HIV testing, and advocacy to Black, gay, bisexual, and trans individuals and communities most at risk for HIV.

Scope of Work: Under the supervision of the Prevention Director, the Prevention and Health Coordinator is responsible for the following:

- Provide case management for individuals accessing PrEP, to include assessment of identified needs, development and tracking of individualized service plans, enrollment in comprehensive insurance plans, and navigation of community resources.
- Conceive, develop, and deliver strengths-based and community-based educational and preventive programming for Black, gay, bisexual, and trans men, including fourth generation HIV testing and advocacy for those most at risk.
- Evaluate program effectiveness and cultural responsiveness regularly using best practice methods, including outcome-based evaluation.
- Document contacts and activities as required by funding sources. Maintain confidential records and prepare statistical monthly and quarterly reports in an accurate and timely manner.
- Coordinate regular and individualized outreach activities, including prevention and agency resources at community events and educational presentations per request.

- Cultivate and sustain positive working relationships with community providers, building partnerships with stakeholders and supporting steering committees and focus groups.
- Engage in community development and audience building by attending meetings related to HIV education and prevention.
- Assist in the development of program policies and procedures as needed to define program guidelines and improve outcomes.
- Represent PCAF prevention and educational programs in the community.
- Develop and demonstrate knowledge of HIV/AIDS particularly as it relates to Black, gay, bisexual, and trans men.
- Consistently model and display appropriate professional boundaries at all times.
- Educate clients in the model of harm reduction when necessary and appropriate.
- Contribute as a team member and share in the responsibilities required to maintain operations and serve the mission of the organization. This includes, but is not limited to, attending events, participating in fundraising activities, obtaining training, undertaking research, traveling, flexibility in scheduling, covering the commitments of coworkers when they are unable, and other duties as assigned.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree preferred in social work, psychology, public health, or a closely related field from a fully accredited college or university and/or two years minimum related work in a health or human services agency.
- Knowledge of how HIV is acquired, transmitted, and treated as well as associated stigma. Grasp of issues facing HIV affected persons and HIV/AIDS in society, and experience working with HIV+ individuals is preferred.
- Prefer candidates with leadership skills, and knowledge of community resources and referrals. Familiarity with outcome-based evaluation, and strengths-based and harm reduction models.
- Demonstrated ability to contribute to an environment that celebrates diversity and difference especially related to socioeconomic status, sexual orientation, gender identity, race, and ethnicity.
- Experience using social justice oriented, anti-racist, pro-equity, and collaborative approaches.
- Demonstrated understanding of institutional and structural racism, and other systems of oppression.
- Commitment to equity, diversity, and inclusion, including working on one's own internal biases and cultural humility.

- Willingness and ability to articulate and abide by PCAF's philosophy and policies in providing service to clients and in representing the agency.
- Demonstrated motivation and self direction. Ability to work independently, with minimal supervision.
- Ability to be flexible, supportive, and to work cooperatively with staff as a member of a diverse team.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills required, along with demonstrated ability to work effectively under stressful conditions.
- Proficiency in computer word-processing, Excel, and various databases; demonstrated ability to access information via the Internet.
- Physical components include frequent keyboarding, lifting of up to 30 lbs, and periods of sitting, standing, and moving about the office. Outreach activities often require setup, extended tabling, and takedown of materials and equipment.
- Must have reliable car, Washington driver's license and appropriate insurance. Regularly scheduled travel to second office is required.

Compensation and Benefits: This is a full-time, non-exempt position. Compensation for this position starts at $19.23 per hour, depending on experience and qualifications. Extraordinary employer-paid benefits package includes medical, dental, and vision coverage, life, short-term and long-term disability insurance, employee assistance programs, paid holidays, and a generous Paid Time Off (PTO) plan.
